Inspection of Salling Vessels.

An important set of Cougress nacted last December will go into effect on July 1st. It relates to sailing vessels carrying passengers for hire. All such vessels of over 700 tons and all other vessels or barges, or barges of over 1:0 tous carrying passengers must thereafter be inspected at least once a year by the local Inspectors of Hulls and Boilers, and masters and first mates of such craft must be licensed by the Inspectors. The first inspection under the new law was held yesterday, when certificates were filed in the Custom Lewers and Honeipu, Certified copies of all certificates are issued by Deputy Collectors Farley and such copies be exposed on the o'clock p.m. vessel, under glass, where they may be seen by passengers and all other parties concerned. Own reand masters of vessels may obtain full information concerning the provisions of the new law upon application to the Inspectors of Hulls and Boilers at their office in the Appraiser's building. - SF, June 16.

Transport Officials Busy. Colonel Long and his army of sesistants were kept basy yester day among the transports. The Zealandia, Valencia and Pennsyl vania are all to return to the Phiappines, and there is a lot of work to do on every one of them. The soldiers' sleeping quarters on the Zealandia were all torn out when to her owners, and now this work in a hurry, as the transport will sail about June 22d. The British tramp steamer Wyefield was taken along-ide Folsom street wharf yesterday and will begin to re-ceive her big cargo of Government stores today. The Wyefield will carry about 7:00 tons.—S F, June
